

Advanced APSA Tank Inspection Training

February 15 & 16, 2023

Orange County Environmental Health

1241 E. Dyer Road, Ste. 120, Santa Ana, CA 92705

Complimentary parking

Apply to attend by January 13, 2023 at www.calcupa.org

Participants will be notified of acceptance 1/19/2023

9:00 a.m. to 4 p.m. (must attend both days)

Training is for intermediate to advanced inspectors. CUPA/PA participants must have passed the OSFM APSA Inspector Training to attend. CUPA Managers must approve (in the CalcUPA.org manager dashboard) each registrant and confirm passing of the OSFM APSA Inspector Training Course by January 13, 2023 to be considered for attendance.

This training is not a certification training (APSA inspections, STI or API tank inspections).

The training provides detailed information about tanks and information for inspectors to utilize when conducting APSA inspections, including:

- SPCC & APSA--Key Concepts Review
- Common Tank System Types and Features
- Tank System Components, Functions and Testing (AST System Anatomy)
- Tank Construction Standards Review (API, UL, and SWRI)
- Industry Inspection Standards Review (STI SP001)
- Interpreting SP001 Certified Inspection Reports
- USTs as ASTs--How to Identify, and Actions to be Taken
- How Bad is Bad? Corrosion, Leaks, and Containment Issues
- Field Erected Tanks

*It is recommended that students bring Steel Tank Institute (STI) SP001 and Petroleum Equipment Institute (PEI) Recommended Practice RP200. These industry standards are integral to the training.

12 REHS Contact hours are available. You must attend both days, sign in and out (show up on-time after lunch) and complete an evaluation to get REHS credit. After your evaluation has been completed, your certificate will be posted to your member account. Partial credit is not provided.

Each jurisdiction may send up to 3 people at no charge. Any registrants over 3 will be permitted based on space available and must pay the registration fee of $675/person (invoiced after the training.) In addition, any no shows or registrants cancelling within 7 days will be charged the full registration fee. Jurisdictions may substitute attendees at no charge.

Registrants will be notified of their acceptance by January 19, 2023.

Seating is limited to 50.
