

San Francisco
Health Network

SAN FRANCISCO DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH

The San Francisco Department of Public Health is honored to accept application for a Principal Environmental Health Inspector.

Minimum Qualifications:

Certification & Experience

1. Possession of a REHS (Registered Environmental Health Specialist) Certificate, issued by the State of California Department of Public Health Services and eligibility to be deputized as a peace officer
- 2.. Seven (7) years of experience in food, housing, water quality and supply, vector control, noise abatement and/or other related environmental health inspection work.

Location: 49 South Van Ness Ave,
San Francisco, CA 94103

Role type: Permanent Civil Service

Salary: $143,442 – $174,252 Annually

Scan QR code to Apply

Job Description:

Under general direction, supervises a number of inspectors in the routine inspection and enforcement in the Water Quality and Control Program, including assigned districts for public health and safety hazards in order to enforce established laws, ordinances and regulations pertaining to the abatement of violations found; personally conducts special investigations of highly important and especially difficult cases and makes recommendations and special reports thereon; business lead on the EHB HealthSpace Data System Project and ongoing data metrics evaluation and coordination throughout EHB programs; and performs related duties as required.